PROGRAMME SUMMARY

The Society of Construction Law Korea (“SCL Korea”) is the Korean Chapter of Society of Construction Law, comprising professionals including engineers, project managers, experts as well as legal advisors from the construction, energy and infrastructure industry.

The SCL Korea is delighted to host the 11th International Society of Construction Law Conference that will be held in Seoul, South Korea, from 22 to 24 October 2025. This Conference will focus on the global practice of construction law, insights into the legal, business, economic challenges and opportunities in construction industry today, and the exchange of best practices from all around the world.

Participants will include Owners, Senior Construction Executives, General Counsel, Construction Solicitors and Barristers, Design Professionals, Consultants and Experts. Speakers will include a diverse range of leading professionals working in the construction industry around the world. Our speakers will share their invaluable knowledge and experience and highlight various issues, opportunities and emerging trends.

To offer an unforgettable experience to all delegates, various social programmes are in place to explore and experience Seoul’s attractions.
